

Anti Trust Statement
Business Network For Offshore Wind
2021

Prelude

The Business Network for Offshore Wind is a not-for-profit organization. The organization is not organized to and may not play any role in the competitive decisions of its members or their employees, nor in any way restrict competition among members or potential members. Rather it serves as a forum for a free and open discussion of diverse opinions without any way attempting to encourage or sanction any particular business practice.

The Business Network for Offshore Wind provides forum for exchange of ideas in a variety of settings including its annual meeting, educational programs, committee meetings, and Board meeting. The Board of Directors recognizes the possibility that The Business Network for Offshore Wind and its activities could be viewed by some as an opportunity for anti-competitive conduct. Therefore, this policy statement clear and unequivocally supports the policy of competition served by the antitrust laws and to communicate The Business Network for Offshore Wind uncompromising policy to comply strictly in all respects with those laws.

While recognizing the importance of the principle of competition served by the antitrust laws, the Business Network for Offshore Wind also recognizes the severity of the potential penalties that might be imposed on not only the business but its members as well in the event that certain conduct is found to violate the antitrust laws. Should the Business Network for Offshore Wind or its members be involved in any violation of federal/state antitrust laws, such violation can involve both civil and criminal penalties that may include imprisonment for up to 3 years as well as fines up to $350,000 for individuals and up to $10,000,000 for the Business Network for Offshore Wind plus attorney fees. In addition, damage claims awarded to private parties in a civil suit are tripled for antitrust violations. Given the severity of such penalties, the Board intends to take all necessary and proper measures to ensure that violations of antitrust laws do not occur.

Policy

In order to ensure that the Business Network for Offshore Wind and its members comply with antitrust laws, the following principles will be observed:

- The Network or any committee, section, chapter, or activity the Business Network for Offshore Wind shall not be used for the purpose of bringing about or attempting to bring about any understanding or agreement, written or oral, formal, or informal, expressed or implied, among two or more members or other competitors with regard to prices or terms and conditions of contracts for services or products. Therefore, discussions and exchanges of information about such topics will not be permitted at meetings or other activities.
- There will be no discussion discouraging or withholding patronage or services from or encouraging exclusive dealing with any supplier or purchaser or group of suppliers or purchasers of products or services, any actual or potential competitor or group of actual potential competitors, or any private or government entity.

- There will be no discussions about allocating or dividing geographic or service markets or customers.
- There will be no discussion about restricting, limiting, prohibiting, or sanctioning advertising or solicitation that is not false, misleading, deceptive, or directly competitive with the Business Network for Offshore Wind products or services.
- There will be no discussions about discouraging entry into or competition in any segment of the marketplace.
- There will be no discussions about whether the practices of any member, actual or potential competitor, or other person are unethical or anti-competitive, unless the discussions or complaints follow the prescribed due process provisions of the Business Network for Offshore Winds' bylaws.
- Certain activities of the Business Network for Offshore Wind and its members are deemed protected from antitrust laws under the First Amendment right to petition government. The antitrust exemption for these activities, referred to as the Noerr-Pennington Doctrine, protects ethical and proper actions or discussions by its members as designed to influence: 1) legislation at the national, state, or local level; 2) regulatory or policy-making activities (as opposed to commercial activities); 3) decision of judicial bodies. However, the exemption does not protect action constituting a "sham" to cover anticompetitive conduct.
- Speakers at committees, educational meetings, or other business meetings of the Business Network for Offshore Wind shall be informed that they must comply with the Business Network for Offshore Winds' antitrust policy in the preparation and the presentation of their remarks. Meetings will follow a written agenda approved in advance by the Business Network for Offshore Wind or its legal counsel.
- Meetings will follow a written agenda. Minutes will be prepared after the meeting to provide a concise summary of important matters discussed and action taken, or conclusions reached.

During formal discussions at the site of any Business Network for Offshore Wind meeting all participants are expected to observe the same standards or personal conduct as are required of the Business Network for Offshore Wind in its compliance.
